Live
Music

A fun, uplifting, and informative day, in the fall outdoors to include live music, free food, prizes, and presentations to help families find a healthy and drug-free lifestyle.

Presentations including a question and answer time will be made by:

- Brazil UPC on the Christian Intervention Program, a faith-based addiction recovery class recommended and/or accepted by courts, case workers, probation, community corrections, and others.
- John Keesler, Ph.D., LMSW, of the IU School of Social Work, will talk about mental health and addictions and share some of his personal story.
- Medical students from the Mollie R. Wheat Memorial Clinic in Terre Haute, who will provide information on the free medical services the clinic provides including acute care visits, health screening, lab tests, and others.
